

TOVE JANSSON AKEBONO CHILDREN'S FOREST PARK MAP

Mushroom House

As the name suggests, this building looks like a mushroom. Visitors are welcomed warmly as family members. The first floor serves the "get-together area" with the fire place and the second floor offers a view of the mysterious space.

Forest House

The first floor is the Tove Jansson Museum. The second floor is the library where you can enjoy your favorite books. The undulating walls made of Nishikawa-zai, Japanese cypress logs, which is famous for the special product of Hanno is a landmark of this house.

Children's Theater Restrooms

This hall is use for concerts and events. It features interesting architectural details such as the dome-shaped roof made of 100-year-old Japanese cypress logs. Restrooms and the administration office are located underneath the hall which is a cave-like space with splash of the pond echoes.

Café Puisto

Puisto is the Finnish word for a park. At café puisto in this forest park, people can come close to nature and spend cozy time in the Scandinavian ambience. The café with blue wall has the children's area. Kids enjoy special dishes while spending their time relaxing. All menu items can be taken out as well!
